Beaches/Surfing

Komune Resort & Beach Club 1hr 15 minutes

Address – Jl. Pantai Keramas, Medahan, Blahbatuh, Gianyar

Tel: +62 361 301 8888

Well known surf spot Keramas Beach can become very crowded especially if the tides work in your favor (best to check tides before you leave NS). Komune Beach Club is also great for just spending time next to the beach if surfing isn't your thing, with a lovely pool, lawns and a fab restaurant. Very chilled and relaxed. A secret surf spot is located just down the beach a little way if Keramas is too busy. Just ask a local!

Canggu Surf Beach 1 hr 30 minute drive

A popular surfer/traveller town lined with nice restaurants overlooking the ocean. Great long boarding spot suitable for beginners most days and when it gets big you can break out the short board. Plenty of surf shacks renting out boards and offering lessons if it's your first time.

Kuta Beach 2hrs drive

8km of white and grey sand attracts both international and domestic visitors. Whether you're looking to surf, sunbathe, enjoy a massage on the beach or take in the magical sunsets, it can all be done at Kuta.

Sanur Beach 1 hr 20 minutes drive

Sanur is a quaint seaside town in the South of Bali. Its long stretch of beach offers safe shallow swimming which is great for kids. Colorful fishing boats make for a beautiful backdrop and the leafy streets are packed with lots of restaurants and cafes. A great day of swimming, relaxing shopping and massages on the beach.

Uluwatu and Bali's Bukit Peninsula 2hrs 30 minute drive

Uluwatu is home to some of the most gorgeous cliff fringed coasts and soft white sand beaches. World class surf breaks make this a must visit for advanced surfers but not really for beginners.

Padang Padang Beach offers another world class wave and is also a popular spot for sun lovers too as at the beach itself the sand is soft and the water is calm for those wanting to swim.

For a good evening/night spot Rock Bar is one of the most spectacular in Bali. West facing on the edge of a cliff it's the perfect spot to enjoy some drinks as the sun goes down. The weekends often have live music too so you can look to dance the night away. Advance booking is required
